Number	Response Date	How can the district improve in this area?	Categories
1	Oct 15, 2016 2:40 PM	Communication is key! While the district has a strong desire to involve parents and the community, I often find out about things last minute or from a random conversation with another parent. I read the newsletters, watch the calendar, and try to keep informed, so I'm not sure if there is a better forum for communication or if we just need more intentionality.
2	Oct 14, 2016 12:10 AM	Make sure that the young African American population can effectively read by summarizing and comprehending materials. Offer transportation services for tutorials for kids who's parents have multiple jobs to support their children. AKA activity bus. Have a designated care teacher who's role is to properly evaluate children's reading and comprehending skills and actually does their job without having other roles piled on to current role.
3	Oct 13, 2016 11:45 PM	Through remediation - getting the at-risk kids earlier (reading recovery at the elementary, intermediate level) before the students are too far behind.
4	Oct 13, 2016 11:42 PM	Dropouts are a difficult problem when dealing with migratory families.
5	Oct 7, 2016 1:58 AM	more technology; perhaps offer computer science in lower grades; put technology in the hands of our younger pirates!
6	Oct 4, 2016 5:02 PM	Increase reading levels of students BEFORE entering Middle School.
7	Oct 4, 2016 1:21 PM	Provide support outside the classroom teacher for students who are at risk or ESL.

8	Oct 4, 2016 7:03 AM	Really need to reach out to kids struggling with difficulty learning and home life situations
9	Oct 3, 2016 7:54 PM	x
10	Oct 3, 2016 3:17 PM	More college and career based courses & and no morr coaches filling in as teachers when it comes to academics
11	Oct 2, 2016 4:25 PM	pine tree junior high has a math teacher or maybe other teachers, who throw away kids assignments if their names not on it. i believe this is VERY CRUEL!!! SOMETHING NEEFS TO BE DONE! THIS IS WHY OUR CHILDREN ARE FAILING!!! PLEASE STOP THIS!!
12	Oct 2, 2016 2:26 PM	Start teaching the children again, instead of teaching them how to pass a state required test.
13	Oct 1, 2016 10:58 PM	Bilingual Immersion Option for all students, all subjects half day in English, half day in Spanish
14	Oct 1, 2016 2:06 PM	The district should have more materials for the teachers to use that is easily attained instead of reinventing the wheel constantly.
15	Oct 1, 2016 12:40 PM	showing these kids what they are losing by dropping out.
16	Oct 1, 2016 7:09 AM	Have teachers contact parents by phone or in person about students at risk of failing to collaborate with the parents.
17	Oct 1, 2016 3:00 AM	Something needs to be done around by the high school/JR high.
18	Sep 30, 2016 11:56 PM	Send more info about all areas.
19	Sep 30, 2016 11:16 PM	We need more prevocational programs ex EMT
20	Sep 30, 2016 10:58 PM	1st teachers that want to make a differences and not just a job. 2nd allow kids to be corrected. I see in the football program the coaches are limited. 3rd Teachers need to speak English well. My daughter has a teacher this year that its hard for her to learn because she can't understand her speech. We have been in the district for years and seen great improvements in Arts, and Tech. I do feel that when you see something that is not working then its time to change it. It looks like that's what this survey is about and proud to be apart of the change.
21	Sep 30, 2016 10:45 PM	incorporate progressive curriculum for ELL students involving all disciplines
22	Sep 30, 2016 9:07 PM	The district needs to find better ways of helping those students that are considered slow learners and can not receive special education services and need something more than universal accommodations
23	Sep 30, 2016 3:27 PM	Consistent and timely communication (in various forms) is always something that can be strengthened - especially among parents.
24	Sep 30, 2016 3:24 PM	Realize that not all students are college material and stop trying to push them all into this track.
25	Sep 30, 2016 3:13 PM	promote education as more important than football
26	Sep 30, 2016 2:17 PM	Better communication, in a timely manner regarding events and activities, and also campus opportunities.
27	Sep 30, 2016 2:39 AM	A strategic team going out and working to stop dropouts as soon as possible and NOT waiting until there have been an abundance of absences.
28	Sep 30, 2016 12:08 AM	The students aren't respected by the administrators. The administrators aren't focusing on the bigger problems in the school.
29	Sep 29, 2016 11:56 PM	We need new leadership at central office. We need people in place that truly care about the kids and less about how they "look" to everyone else. Kids should come first and their learning should be developmentally appropriate.
30	Sep 29, 2016 11:53 PM	Stop sending people to pace over something dumb
31	Sep 29, 2016 10:48 PM	Student participation in UIL, clubs, and organizations and a mentoring program for students

Number	Response Date	Response Text	Categories
1	Oct 18, 2016 2:07 PM	Need quality teachers in high school science department. (Physics) As of this time, I don't think any of the kids will take AP Physics next year with current teacher.
2	Oct 17, 2016 4:34 PM	none at this time
3	Oct 16, 2016 8:26 PM	I do not know about campuses other than the one I am on, so I am not familiar with all the challenges.
4	Oct 15, 2016 2:40 PM	Continue exploring and increasing dual credit options for students;
5	Oct 14, 2016 11:31 PM	Support band and educators financially over football.
6	Oct 14, 2016 7:23 PM	Teach penmanship again. And teach everything to do with credit.
7	Oct 14, 2016 4:25 PM	School/Life balance for students. Teachers communicate with extracurricular activities so students have time to do homework and study without staying up until all hours of the night. Core subjects should be attended every day.
8	Oct 14, 2016 1:50 PM	Maintaining a well rounded dual credit program with creative and flexible ways for advanced students to get ahead or add to their education. Finding ways to allow home school students to enter at any time and be able to prove their skills and academic proficiency in all subjects.
9	Oct 14, 2016 5:36 AM	Some of the teacher are not doing well and should be reevaluated. My children have had problems with teacher not teaching material that they test on. Teachers not explaining when asked questions. In one instance half of the Students dropped out of the class because of the teacher not doing the job in a competent manor. My youngest child is having issues with one of his teachers on the middle school campus with the same thing. Not teaching: where students understand the material has become a huge issue.
10	Oct 14, 2016 4:55 AM	Special ed. Students should be challenged also. Programs as they. Are designed just get them through and offer no preparation for employment or job training. Too often it is babysitting. Expectations are LOW.
11	Oct 14, 2016 12:10 AM	This popcorn and bean bag mentality for discipline in the 12-18 yr old range. If a kids misbehaving in class he is punished! Not given a piece of candy and sent back to class. You send out a letter in the beginning of the school year and let the parents know that you will be enforcing strict rules pertaining to behavioral disciplinary action. Outline the rules and stick to them! None of this "well the kids a good kid he/she just had a hiccup" Kids need to learn discipline for their future environment. Parents are biased so to have better success rate of the children directly affected by those disrupting class, administrators should back the teachers up on disciplinary referrals!
12	Oct 14, 2016 12:01 AM	Communication with parents
13	Oct 13, 2016 11:45 PM	We have an amazing CTE program. I think we should concentrate on maintaining and expanding that program. I am also concerned about the turnover rate of teachers.
14	Oct 13, 2016 11:42 PM	Reducing bad behavior is important and reductions in suspensions and referrals would follow. Reducing suspensions and referrals without the modification in behavior seems to be in vogue with the education establishment. [] At some point, some school district, somewhere, will call a halt to the ridiculous kowtowing to the fear of lawsuits.
15	Oct 13, 2016 11:39 PM	I have 3 students in high school and listening to them talk about some of their core classes, they seem to be really full. I am concerned about the sizes of the classes.
16	Oct 13, 2016 11:00 PM	Include cultural diversity training for all staff.
17	Oct 13, 2016 10:53 PM	Micromanagement of veteran teachers, low morale among veteran teachers, retaining good teachers
18	Oct 7, 2016 1:20 PM	none, just keeping working on the ones we already have
19	Oct 7, 2016 1:58 AM	The lack of technology. We are way behind other districts in the area that are smaller than we are...we need to implement more of these kinds opportunities for students. More STEAM!
20	Oct 6, 2016 12:49 AM	Curriculum (which I heard it is working on- THIS WAS A MAJOR), student to teacher ratio- not sure what other options there are available?
21	Oct 5, 2016 5:03 PM	Teacher retention is a huge issue. Many teachers are being stretched to their limits without any appreciation and are quitting. Class sizes are getting larger, but should be smaller with our diversified student body.

22	Oct 5, 2016 4:40 PM	More individual work rather than all group work. Fight to remove the "teach for the state test". Teach to learn and for life- no standardized tests
23	Oct 5, 2016 1:42 PM	Too much focus on the STAAR test. Teachers are strained too much on this test and after the test is over it seems like everything stops. Too much pressure for this test both for students and teaches. I believe equal focus should be given to the entire school year and not base what was learned and the students ability on one test. thank you.
24	Oct 5, 2016 10:19 AM	Staff accepting of diverse cultures within our district and having a global awareness.
25	Oct 4, 2016 8:18 PM	Facility updates!
26	Oct 4, 2016 4:33 PM	Communication especially at birch.
27	Oct 4, 2016 4:30 PM	I would like to see the boys basketball team receive as much support as the other High School athletic programs.
28	Oct 4, 2016 7:03 AM	Finding a middle ground learning environment between special education & "inclusion" classes that WORKS for the children who don't need to learn life skills, they're capable of learning, just in their way by highly trained, devoted, one on one teachers because they're slipping through the cracks.....a terrible injustice to them & the families who love, care, and worry about them being able to find their true potential. I know there has to be a solution to the gap.....invest heavily in the kind of teachers you would find changing lives in the private sector.....aren't our children just as important as the academically gifted and athletes? Future greatness may be laying in untapped potential.
29	Oct 4, 2016 1:21 AM	Provide teachers & students with more resources to keep up with other districts.
30	Oct 3, 2016 8:58 PM	Right now severe discipline problems are left in the classroom for the teachers to deal with because no one knows how to deal with them. However the teachers and other students in the class are paying a very high price for it. They can't learn and the teachers can't teach. Some students are even afraid. This is a severe problem, just ask the teachers.
31	Oct 3, 2016 8:02 PM	Global awareness rather than city/state focus
32	Oct 3, 2016 4:55 PM	No
33	Oct 3, 2016 3:17 PM	We need better and more teachers we need books for kids to study at home ☐
34	Oct 3, 2016 3:01 PM	Providing adequate services for special needs students and help in the classrooms for inclusion teachers.
35	Oct 3, 2016 12:41 PM	Communication!! Coming from another district I have found that communication and advance notice of school events
36	Oct 2, 2016 7:33 PM	Long-term changes to inappropriate and unproductive student behaviors and increase in parental input/involvement are two areas that I believe PTISD should address. I have some ideas that I would love to share that may give the district some guidance in these areas. Please, feel free to contact me for more details. Growing greatness...whatever it takes!
37	Oct 2, 2016 4:16 PM	Better communication between teachers and parents at the secondary level. With my 5 children I have found that 90% of the reaching out is prompted by the parent. We have too many children with parents not involved in their education for this to be the standard.
38	Oct 2, 2016 2:39 PM	Discipline policies.
39	Oct 1, 2016 10:58 PM	Lower student teacher ratio, stronger ESL and or bilingual program
40	Oct 1, 2016 9:10 PM	Attendance
41	Oct 1, 2016 2:06 PM	Yes, major discipline issues that is disruptive to the whole area and keeping students from learning. These issues should be dealt with immediately before they escalate out of control. Also, by providing teachers with more materials to use in all areas where teachers are not having to reinvent the wheel constantly. In addition, it would be nice for both Elementary campuses to be equal in regards to equipment such as printers, science tools, etc.
42	Oct 1, 2016 1:00 PM	Middle school age children need to learn to respect each other and not be so sexuallyobsessed by nastyjokes bee g toldtothegirls and stop beingsexually harassing
43	Oct 1, 2016 12:40 PM	The history and elective programs are sadly lacking. Its all about sports here and it shouldn't be.
44	Oct 1, 2016 11:09 AM	N/A

45	Oct 1, 2016 2:42 AM	It took my son testing two years in a row before he was put into a special education program. I feel like no one was listening to my input or frustrations as a parent. There needs to be a better process in place for struggling students to get what they need.
46	Oct 1, 2016 2:37 AM	Keep good teachers. Big exodus of quality and experienced teachers. If my child was not in the last year we would leave as well. Plus without advising parents you mainstreamed the gt program. So you had kids in there who didn't need or want to be in there. And now you have teachers teaching gt programs who are not qualified or not trained for teaching gt children. Watch the quality go down. Now the only reason you are doing this is because the state is mandating it.
47	Oct 1, 2016 12:33 AM	Need to keep prayer in schools, for sure. That is very important!!!!
48	Sep 30, 2016 11:56 PM	Not at the moment .
49	Sep 30, 2016 11:47 PM	We are horrible at marketing ourselves. Newcomers are told all over town how poor we are. We can overcome it but finds have to be devoted to it. Churches and private schools advertise. We are competing for people yet just crossing our fingers they will come "buy at our store". It doesn't work that way
50	Sep 30, 2016 11:37 PM	Get rid of STAAR test
51	Sep 30, 2016 11:16 PM	I honestly think we should offer more prevocational skills to take while in school. ☐
52	Sep 30, 2016 10:58 PM	na
53	Sep 30, 2016 10:45 PM	ensure all decisions, money spent, and objectives retain the focus of instruction and student learning
54	Sep 30, 2016 10:37 PM	Following the dress code
55	Sep 30, 2016 10:31 PM	Should be much more selective when hiring persons to sponsor extra curricular activities. Get alumnis involved, they have real long term interest in our school and kids.
56	Sep 30, 2016 10:31 PM	Providing kids real hard information to grasp on what they are really learning and not have a teacher who half knows the answer to question that is important for the students to know.Also to help the students to get better at what they are learning instead of telling them there are doing good when they want at least a C average or above.
57	Sep 30, 2016 10:29 PM	None
58	Sep 30, 2016 9:07 PM	The special education department appears to run on a bare minimum of staff and the number of students moving into our district already identified is increasing. We must spend more money on training for para professionals who are being asked to do certified teacher duties. Teachers need built in time for observations and analysis of students to appropriately educate general education teachers to students needs and provide innovative, individualized instruction to our special education students.
59	Sep 30, 2016 8:56 PM	Communication between the school district, individual campuses and parents. The communication line between these entities is not consistent district wide.
60	Sep 30, 2016 8:38 PM	One size does not fit all for students nor teachers. Focus on the positives and allow for the differences to create strengths.
61	Sep 30, 2016 5:06 PM	Staff on campus is negative...need to address
62	Sep 30, 2016 4:57 PM	The consistency of offering a fine arts program throughout ALL grade levels (Primary and 5th specifically).
63	Sep 30, 2016 4:43 PM	Teacher Moral Appreciation of people's time and emotions
64	Sep 30, 2016 3:15 PM	Administrative turn over.
65	Sep 30, 2016 3:13 PM	Student success begins at home before a child even starts school. Somehow parents have to accept responsibility for their children's actions. The district needs to more accessible in helping parents achieve success at home.
66	Sep 30, 2016 2:25 PM	Tier I Instructional Issues
67	Sep 30, 2016 1:59 PM	1. Continue to prepare the non-college student for success. Create programs to advance them prior to graduate.☐
68	Sep 30, 2016 1:57 PM	I truly believe a school uniform would help our learning environment.
69	Sep 30, 2016 12:20 PM	Not at this time
70	Sep 30, 2016 12:16 PM	Some of the teachers, especially coaches, seem to not care and are teaching the students poorly.
71	Sep 30, 2016 12:12 PM	plan ahead for support staff needs in the fiuture
72	Sep 30, 2016 2:39 AM	Teacher salary/retaining quality teachers

73	Sep 30, 2016 1:13 AM	Clear communication
74	Sep 30, 2016 12:40 AM	Lack of a computer science program. Computer programmers are the highest demand job in the country....yet PTHS offers no classes on this topic.
75	Sep 30, 2016 12:08 AM	The district seems to give students unfair or excessive punishment.
76	Sep 29, 2016 11:56 PM	Our district has lost many good educators because of lack of true support from Central office. The level of stress and demands put on hardworking teachers in the district is excessive, and when their kids don't perform the way administrators want, they are made to feel they have not done a good job. We desperately need administrators to listen to the experts in the classroom and support the teachers. Our students are not robots and come with many needs and levels of ability. Admin needs to remember who we are teaching and what it takes to teach these kids, especially those who are coming from rough backgrounds where education isn't necessarily important at home.
77	Sep 29, 2016 11:53 PM	New central office people and better relationships with the kids
78	Sep 29, 2016 11:34 PM	Communication throughout the district.
79	Sep 29, 2016 11:11 PM	The strain on their teachers
